

SOVAC Craft & Gift Shop Agreement

Participants must be Members in in good standing with the Society of Vermont Artists & Craftsmen. There is an additional fee of $50 for Individual members participating in the Shop. There is no additional fee for Artist/Professional members and instructors. If your work is not accepted for any reason, your fee will be refunded.

All items for sale in the Shop must be approved by a Board member for quality assurance and to avoid duplication of similar items.

When we receive your signed agreement and payment (if applicable), you will be sent further instructions for approval, preparation and delivery of your items to the shop.

Each Crafter accepts all product liability for his/her merchandise and agrees to hold harmless the Society of Vermont Artists & Craftsmen. We will do our best to take good care of your items while in our possession, but will not be responsible for loss or damage beyond our control.

Participants may choose to be a clerking member with a 15% contribution of sales going to the Society of Vermont Artists & Craftsmen or a non-clerking member with a 30% contribution. Clerking members will be required to work 6 days during the season (10am-4pm), 2 of which should be weekend days.

Any items left in the Shop after closing for the season, will be at the owners risk and the Society will not be responsible for those items.

Please maintain a copy of this agreement for your records.
